

A Conversation on Identity, Healing, and the Power of Story

An intimate, professionally produced conversation with a proposed celebrity guest.

BREYA M. BROWNER

Host and moderator
Actress, author and storyteller

Proposed stage concept. Guest appearance unconfirmed.

~100

attendees
planned

The Vault at Capital One Hall

Proposed venue in Tysons, Virginia
Serving Washington, DC, Maryland
and Northern Virginia

An evening designed for authentic connection

The conversation

Breya moderates a thoughtful exchange with a proposed celebrity guest.

The audience

Questions and shared reflections bring attendees into the dialogue.

The atmosphere

Professional lighting and sound, with welcoming hospitality from arrival to departure.

Proposed room concept. Final seating and production design remain in development.

A DMV community connected by story

For people who value
culture, personal growth
and authentic connection

Creatives and storytellers
Professionals and entrepreneurs

Outreach across Washington, DC, Maryland and Northern Virginia will invite a range of lived experiences.

OUR PROPOSED OUTREACH

- 01 Breya's digital platforms
Introduce the vision through existing Instagram, X and Facebook channels.
- 02 Community relationships
Connect with creative and professional networks throughout the DMV.
- 03 Promotional collaboration
Work with aligned partners to share event storytelling and invitations.

“Have you ever felt like people knew everything about you except who you actually are?”

The question at the heart of this experience

The hoped-for impact lives in the conversations people carry home.

Identity & representation

Make room for lived experiences beyond public images and expectations.

Healing & reflection

Invite honest dialogue about uncertainty, growth and becoming.

Connection & understanding

Help attendees recognize shared experiences across different lives.

A continuing conversation

Encourage personal reflection and community dialogue after the evening ends.

A meaningful place for your organization

Design concept only. Displayed venue branding does not indicate a confirmed partnership.

Authentic collaboration begins with shared purpose.

Community engagement

Support a cultural experience for people across the DMV.

Brand recognition

Explore recognition in event materials and a thoughtful on-site presence.

Promotional visibility

Discuss inclusion in event promotion and select post-event content.

Purposeful participation

Shape a contribution that enhances the experience and respects its voice.

Several ways to support the inaugural event

Approximately

$75,000

PRELIMINARY
FUNDRAISING TARGET

An early funding goal.
Final production budget, expenses and commitments remain in development.

Financial sponsorships & grants

Funding to help advance planning and support event production.

In-kind partnerships

Products, technical services, hospitality or other resources.

Brand & promotional collaboration

Coordinated outreach and contributions that enrich the guest experience.

PROPOSED AREAS OF SUPPORT

Venue and production, guest hospitality, marketing and technical support

LET'S BRING THIS VISION TO LIFE

One inaugural evening. A larger vision.

A beginning in the DMV, with the hope of creating more spaces where people feel seen, heard and understood.

Let's explore how your organization can help bring this conversation to life.

BREYA M. BROWNER

breyambrowner.com @breyambrowner

Proposed reception concept. Venue booking and any partnership remain unconfirmed.

Identity. Healing. The power of personal story.